

4/21/16

Wednesday, April 20, 2016 5:36 PM

For the following sentences, please label the subjects, predicates, verb phrases, and prepositional phrases.

1. Actually, Jill pushed Jack off the side of the cliff because she did not love Jack anymore.
2. After Jill watched Jack crack his head on the rocks below her, she happily ran into the field nearby.
3. Across that field stood a young man.
4. The young man's name was John.
5. John looked up and saw Jill coming towards him, and he immediately became more tense.