For the following sentences, label the subjects, predicates, verb phrases, and prepositional phrases.

1. Jill and John began to relax in their cabin and were excited about the future that they had in front of them.
2. A few miles away at the bottom of a cliff, Jack's lifeless body lay motionless.

For the following sentences, decide which verb agrees with its subject and then state whether each set of subjects and predicates are simple or compound.

3. Jill (was/were) thinking about Jack's gruesome death as John and she (was/were) snuggling on the couch, and surprisingly, she (feel/feels) no remorse and (sleep/sleeps) soundly through the night.
4. John and Jill (is/are) executing the perfect plan, and they (know/knows) that they (have/has) gotten away with it as long as neither Jill nor John (crack/cracks).
