

5/25/16

Tuesday, May 24, 2016 3:43 PM

Label whether each sentence is a fragment, run-on, comma splice, or correct. If it is not correct, fix it.

1. Jill and John were happily spending time together ~~in their cabin~~ despite the fact that Jack was inconspicuously hiding right outside the cabin door and was just waiting for one of them to walk out the door. Correct
2. As the fire began to die and John realized that they needed more firewood. Fragment
3. Jill gave him a kiss. As he put on his coat to go outside. Fragment
4. Jack saw what was happening, he ran over to the pile of firewood and waited for John. CS